WHEN THE BOYS COME HOME

There's a happy time coming when the boys come home;
There's a glorious day coming when the boys come home;
 We will end the dreadful story
 Of the battle dark and gory
 In a sunburst of glory,
 When the boys come home.

The day will seem brighter when the boys come home,
And our hearts will be lighter when the boys come home;
 Wives and sweethearts will press them
 In their arms and caress them,
 And pray God to bless them,
 When the boys come home.

The thin ranks will be proudest when the boys come home,
And our cheer will ring the loudest when the boys come home;
 The full ranks will be shattered,
 And the bright arms will be battered,
 And the battle-standards tattered,
 When the boys come home.

Their bayonets may be rusty when the boys come home,
And their uniforms be dusty when the boys come home;
 But all shall see the traces
 Of the battle's royal graces
 In the brown and bearded faces,
 When the boys come home.

Our love shall go to meet them when the boys come home,
To bless them and to greet them when the boys come home;
 And the fame of their endeavor
 Time and change shall not disever
 From the nation's heart for ever,
 When the boys come home.
